

My name is Paul Pierucki. I was saved in 1990 and have been preaching ever since. I was sent out in 2002 on deputation for Eastern Europe, and moved our family of seven to Romania in 2003. God called me to a pastor position in Michigan in June of 2017, so we moved back to the States.

In 2007, we started working with the few IB churches in Hungary, and met Jonatán Andrásik, a pastor's (who was trained by an IB missionary there) son, who translated for me many, many times over the years.

In 2011, a pastor friend in the States (Tim Boles) came, and his daughter (Elisabeth) spent a summer with our girls. Brother Boles has made several trips over the years. Elisabeth married Jonatán in 2015, and they had their first child in 2017.

This couple is truly serving God with all their heart, and in humility, being used of Him. Trust me, I would not recommend someone like this if I did not see it personally over a long period of time of their faithfulness and testimony for God's glory.

Jonatán has trained also under Brother Jim Pranger for the last nine years. God has called him to start a church, which being ordained in his father's church, he has pursued the last year. They have a building, some families, but little time, for he works full time also.

We have been supporting them, and since I know them so well and have the deepest respect for their walk with God, I have asked our church to be their sending church here in the States with his church's approval.

They are local church, KJB in English, and doctrinally sound.

Jesus is worthy of all,
Paul Pierucki
