

Dear Pastors and Churches,

We can only Praise the Lord for what He is doing in our lives. In the last two months we were able to pass out thousands of gospel tracks, John and Romans, and invitations for our ministry and for other churches also. With this we were able to finish our second wave of mailboxing in our town. Besides personal witnessing and going out to the market, trying to make contact with people.

February went by so fast, and had somewhat cold weather, but Praise the Lord it wasn't too bad, so we were able to go out a lot to share the gospel. We had pastor Pierucki and his wife visiting, Europe we had a great time together. Always a blessing to hear him preach. We were able to attend a couples retreat, and learned a lot of things! Such a show important in our marriage to be an example to show and represent God's perfect love to others. Fulfilling God's will with that. We had the annual valentines day banquet, which is always a blessing.

March, the first week we spent in Germany. We attended to a conference, which was held in Colditz. We were able to meet some wonderful people, been encouraged in many areas of life. On some Wednesdays, we went with Missionary Jim Pranger to help inviting people at their new work. Many opportunities to share the glorious gospel with a lot of people. One occasion a lady came up to me, after I invited her. And she just started to talk to me and ask questions, she has a rough life, divorce, alcohol etc. the end of our conversation she was so thankful that I spent time to listen to her, and answer some of her questions. Zsuzsa (Suzan) her name is. Praying she would get saved. We got the blessing to our neighbour (Melinda and her family) again this month at the place where we live, She is now going to my dad's church quite often.

Be a blessing anywhere you are! As I am walking around the towns, always meeting new people, and get into some very interesting situations, and conversations. As I was walking doing my daily mailboxing on an afternoon, I passed by a house, and I see an elderly man sitting on the ground of their front porch. I said hello, but walked away, immediately I was thinking, what if something is wrong with him? So I turned around, and by that time his wife opened their door and trying to get him up. He felt down, and hit his back side, so I asked the lady if I could help, but since we have fencing could go right up, so she had to go and get the keys, open the gate, then we walked up the porch and helped her husband up. He was also drinking but he has health issues. We got him safe, then the lady was very thankful, I got to witness to them and invite them to church.

Another time this other normal looking elderly man on his bike stopped for me, gave him a John and Romans and invitations, then he said this is great! I should give him a couple more because he is on his way to an elderly home. God can use anything!

About a month ago, one of the men who has been visiting the Church last year started to come again. He still needs to get saved! He had and has major problems in his life. Three Sundays ago I had to help him go out of his parents house for different reasons, and move back to his little cottage. The next day he helped around the church, and I also helped him to fix his shower and some things. He needs to realize that only God can help him. No matter how much he tries to be better, only God can save him. Also please pray for his parents we have contact with, his sisters family to be a witness to all of them. I believe if this man gives his life to God, that will effect many people around him and us.

Towards the end of the month, my parents got to start their moving process, which means that their new house needs some remodeling, so I am trying to help as much as I could to get them situated and move them in the middle of this April. I am glad I can help, since my dad is a pastor as well he has a full time job. He is self-employed carpenter too. It is difficult to get ready for Church and get everything done too.

Another blessing is that since our last prayer letter three new churches have begun supporting us.

In Christ,
